PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM ROZ

I am looking for the right people for this opportunity. This is a mentorship program and that means you will have my energy behind you. I will be your rocket ship booster.

Let's face it; I'm not a 9-5 girl. You will be able to text me at any time. If I'm awake, I'll answer.

This is about manifesting growth in your career and, I can't emphasize this enough, you will have long-term personal access to me as your mentor. Instead of taking my In-Studio class again and again, I've now extended it and sweetened the package with increased attention, private coaching, career coaching and support, edits for your reel, and design for your website. Plus, you'll receive the beta test of my other new program, Acting in the Digital Age.

I'm going to be honest. This high level of commitment and work is not for everyone so I'm looking to have a conversation with you to see if this is a good fit for you.

I hope you're excited because I am! Excited to give you more personal attention, hands-on impact, and be part of your long-term growth!
